

Indiana has successfully made tolerable unwanted telephone solicitation in this state. This is better than the six or seven daily unwanted solicitations before the Indiana laws took effect. I have just connected to my Email. There are 71 unwanted Email solicitation in this one session. SPAM has made the communication marvels of the ages into a useless tools. Do not under any circumstance encourage any more ability for unwanted communication either by telephone or by other electronic means.